

Good News from Grace

MAY 2022

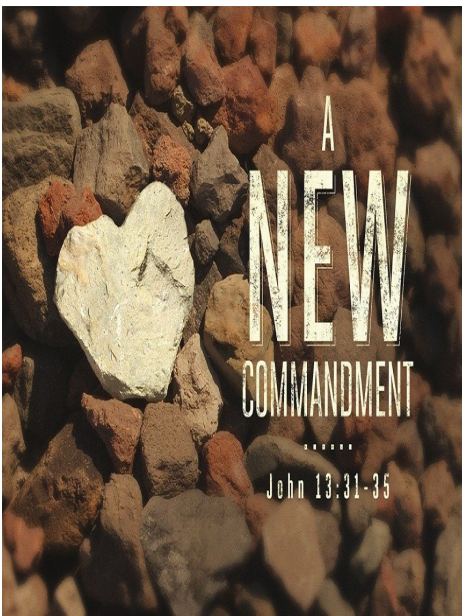

Our Purpose

The purpose of our church is to make a difference by serving others through God's love and our faith.

May 15, 2022 (Fifth Sunday of Easter)

John 13:34-35 – I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another.

Cultivating safe space where love is the language and there's room at the table for everyone should be a guiding principle for steward-disciples. After all, Jesus commands it. What would it take for our congregation to become known as "the love church"?

FLAT JESUS

As some of you may remember in the Summer of 2016 Flat Jesus went on many trips with members of Grace. Well, we plan to do it again this summer from May 29 – August 28.

What is Flat Jesus you may ask? Flat Jesus is based on the children's book Flat Stanly by Jeff Brown. He is an image on 5x7 cardstock that you can pick up in the library next starting Sunday, May 15. Once you have the image you can decorate his clothes and take him along with you wherever you go this summer, whether it be to summer camp, the beach or Alaska, not only in a tangible way but in the way you live and serve in Jesus' name.

Then while traveling we want you to take photographs of

FROM THE INTERIM PASTOR

Greetings to you in this Season of Easter in which we are keenly reminded that our faith is founded on resurrection, in this life and in the life to come.

We just celebrated the Fourth Sunday of Easter, traditionally known as "Jesus, the Good Shepherd" Sunday. On this Sunday you bid farewell to Pastor Cover, beloved spiritual leader for nearly the past nine years. Soon, you will receive me as your intentional interim pastor. In the meantime, you are preparing to send Vicar Susan as a rostered minister of Word and Sacrament. Changes in rostered ministers carry a certain degree of anxiety with the "known" leaving and the "unknown" arriving. But this time of transition is also, and most importantly, a time for opportunity.

Recall that the word "pastor" derives from the Latin noun pastor which means "shepherd" and is derived from the verb pascere - "to lead to pasture, set to grazing, cause to eat." The term pastor is synonymous with the biblical understanding of minister.

Pastor Cover shepherded you with care, compassion, love and grace. Together you continued ministries that were started before her arrival, you embarked on new ministries, and now, you are on the horizon of discerning future ministries through the work of the strategic planning process. You have been a very active and forward moving faith

FROM OUR ORGANIST

May 29 will be my last Sunday as organist at Grace. My tour ends at a time of transition for others as well. I'm thrilled with the hiring of Emily and Kristopher Hartman, two excellent and well-educated musicians.

When I became the organist at Grace in 2006, I thought I would be in that position for about five years. To my surprise, it turned into 16 years!

During that time, I worked with many pastors. Pastor Cover has been truly great to work with. She has impressive knowledge and expertise with all aspects of leading a church. She even stepped up to serve as Sunday School Superintendent and children's choir director, which I believe is unprecedented. I will miss her very much.

Carolyn Houck also did a great job as Music Director, and I'm happy that she will continue to attend and participate in activities here at Grace. You will also continue to see me at church as I plan to continue as an active member of the Grace community, including the bell choir.

It has been a pleasure serving as your organist, and I will remember this time fondly. I want to thank the congregation for much support through the years. Onward and upward! Blessings to you all!

Organist

New Music Ministers

Kristopher & Emily Hartman will begin as the new music ministers on Sunday, June 5.

If you wish to reach out to them with questions, concerns or thoughts you can do so at K.E.Hartman11@gmail.com

MEMORIES OF GRACE

Over the past few months especially, I have been reflecting a lot about my time here at Grace. This August will mark my ten year milestone, and 18 overall years of leading youth ministry. I can now officially say that I've been leading youth for more than half of my life!

I am extremely grateful for these past ten years. There have been so many changes around us in terms of community, our vision/focus/purpose, and of course with our staff. Diane has asked me to write this article about some of my memories here at Grace, and after 10 years I have SO MANY! I could have chosen to write about our youth that have grown up to have their own children, that have gone to college and now have their "big boy" and "big girl" jobs, or I could write about those that have become leaders within or started their own faith related non - profits, BUT I would be remiss not to mention the number one reason why we have seen these results, and my favorite part of Grace - the commitment from the whole congregation.

From the day I started at Grace, we had committed families to ensure the success of this ministry. Parents have stepped up to lead as registrars, meal coordinators, chaperones, hosts within their own homes, and aided in teaching their children to evangelize. Grace Youth Group is known as an extremely welcoming group to our neighbors simply due to the fact of how many friends have been welcomed into our youth room and church properties. All of the parents/guardians that have served formally or informally in these roles over years have allowed me to really focus on recruiting young leaders to lead on Sunday evenings and beyond. With the team of advisors we have, I am convinced we are running the race our Lord has commissioned us to do. Our advisor team walks alongside the young people and guides them in their faith lives as is called of us.

Change is not only necessary, it is unavoidable. After listening to Pastor Cover's sending sermon last week, my thoughts were confirmed as she stated the ministry of Grace has been so strong, especially through transitions, due to the strength, mission and commitment of the congregation through it all! I look forward to serving alongside Pastor Lois as she shepherds the Grace flock into the next stages of our servanthood to the Highland Park area and beyond! - Jesse Woodrow

CHURCH REPAIR & MAINTENANCE

Did you ever notice when the neighbor's car came home with a crumpled fender? You see cars every day, but the ones you really notice are those that are damaged, right. Your church is the same way. You notice when something isn't right. When it's been repaired, it's as it should be and you really don't take notice.

For example, did you notice that you no longer need to walk through six inches of standing water to enter the church office from the parking lot? Or how about the green mold growing on the Grace Welcome awning? When was the last time you remember having to clean-up flooded water in the social hall? Or when the steeple lights weren't working? You probably remember not being able to open both the entrance doors to the sanctuary, but do you notice when the air conditioning wasn't working? I bet you do!

These are all things that require periodic maintenance so they don't become expensive repairs. You may remember talking about the church as a house, only it's a very "big" house and it needs constant maintenance.

If we are to grow as a church, the community needs to see Grace in all it's glory. Preventative maintenance can reduce costly repairs and promote the "story" of the church. As a congregation, you can help in this endeavor by volunteering for a committee like Property Board or Altar Guild.

To quote Pastor Arthur Neal "The Harvest is Plentiful - but the Laborers are few".

Property Board

ALTAR GUILD OPPORTUNITY

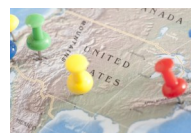

Looking for a way to serve at Grace? Consider the Altar Guild. They could use some new helpers to help out on a rotational basis cleaning up the Communion Elements on Sundays after the live stream. Please contact Beth Jury at drjury11@gmail.com.

community!

With the departure of a permanent pastor comes an intentional interim pastor. Why such a title? During this time of transition, we intentionally come to terms with Grace's history, discern its vision for the future, and work on healthy behaviors to strengthen the lay leadership and faith community as preparations are made to call a new permanent pastor. But the overarching umbrella to this work is a "shepherd" to continue to preside at worship services, to preach the Word and to administer the sacraments, to officiate at weddings and funerals and to offer pastoral care.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER HELP NEEDED

After 54 years, Joyce Allan can no longer handle all that is needed to keep the Intercessory prayer ministry going. She is looking for someone willing to take over the ministry.

Due to the COVID pandemic, the list has not been updated since January 2019.

Joyce will gladly offer her experience and thoughts to help make a successful transition. Anyone interested can contact her at home or send an email to joyce1don2@comcast.net.

"I believe in the power of prayer. I think prayer benefits the person being prayed for by knowing that others care, and it benefits the person praying as they think good thoughts for others. I hope that everyone will continue to pray for the people whose names that are printed weekly in the Grace News. God bless all of you and God bless our prayer ministry." - Joyce Allan

I look forward to serving you, leading you, and being present with you as we journey forward, praying together this prayer from the liturgy for Evening Prayer:

O Lord God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us, and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Serving in the name of Christ,

Pastor Lois Van Orden
